

Who's Who in Flyer

People

- Wendy Angela "Darling" Davis

Wendy Darling; brothers: older: David (died in childhood); younger: Mike (died in college); John (died in the Army); Wendy drives a Jeep Compass (she was the compass for the Lost Boys). The Llewellyn-Davis family was the inspiration for the Darling family in Wendy and Peter.

- T. K. Bell: Thomas Kenneth Bell, "Bell"

Tinker Bell; drives a Ford Explorer, just like Tink was an explorer

- Peter Barry

Peter Pan

- Sylvia Barry

Peter's mother; Sylvia Llewellyn Davis

- Aunt Jane, Wendy Davis' aunt

Jane was Wendy Darling's daughter in Wendy and Peter

- Jamie Lim, guidance counselor

Captain James Hook

- Tina "Tiger" Lilly: Peter's girlfriend

Tiger Lily; Tina drowned in California

- Johnny Smead: Lim's friend who worked as a wine sommelier in Iowa City

Smeed, the pirate; Hook's right-hand man, who had a sword named Johnny Corkscrew

- Ted Otts, "Totts", lawyer

Tootles, a Lost Boy; he grew up to be a judge

- Nanna, Wendy's childhood dog

Nana, the "nanny" for the Darling family.

- Athos, the cat

J.M. Barrie had a dog named Porthos

- Bill Juko, Murphy Black: reporters

Bill Jukes, Black Murphy: two of Hook's pirates

- John Jones, "Dibs", a car salesman
Nibs, a Lost Boy; he grew up to work in an office
- Bobby Noble, "Lightly"; a banker
Slightly, a Lost Boy, who grew up to marry a noblewoman and became wealthy
- Carl "Curly" Gedney, manager of a building supply store
Curly, a Lost Boy, who always gets into 'pickles' and who designed the house the Lost Boys built for Wendy
- Charmine and Fay (Filette)
Charmine is French for "charmer" (a person who casts charms) and Fay is French for fairy. Filette is a diminutive for a small girl.
- George Llewellyn (Bell's lawyer)
George Llewellyn was father to the boys J. M. Barry later adopted.

Locations, etc.

- Kensington, Iowa
Kensington Gardens, where Barrie and the Llewellyn-Davis boys met
- 133 Gloucester St.: Wendy's house
Barrie lived at 133 Gloucester Road, in London
- The treasure chest
Mrs. Davis kept secret documents in the chest, with a skeleton key shaped with an acorn bow, like Peter's acorn button given to Wendy; Peter wears "skeleton leaves" as clothing.
- Laguna Beach
Smead and Lim moved there in later years. "Lagoon"
- Window
Peter jumped out a window that wasn't barred (Wendy was sure their window would always remain open for them to return)
- Berkley
Peter's father moved to Berkley (The Davies family moved to Berkhamsted)

- Never bird

The Never bird in Peter and Wendy is described as like a pelican

- Los Olivos, California

Peter's mother moved to California, which often is called "Neverland" (derisively). She lives in Los Olivos, which is near Michael Jackson's Neverland Ranch.