

Can you recapture a lost love?

34 years ago, young Nate Boltz fell in love with Emily Sutherland. They worked together for three magical months at a resort in Michigan in the town where Nate lived. Then they parted after a tumultuous summer of love, danger, and mystery.

Now Nate is the Police Chief in town when a skeleton is uncovered at the resort. It's identified as a girl who went missing when the resort closed after the summer Emily and Nate spent together.

Nate reaches out to Emily and others from that summer and she eagerly responds to join him as he tries to untangle old clues and half-forgotten rumors. Will they rekindle their romance and find a way to stay together this time?

Or does the murderer have his own plans for the two kids from that magical summer of love?

Here's an excerpt

Amazon:

<http://tinyurl.com/mwj6l35>

B&N

<http://tinyurl.com/q4cwo3t>