

Murder has found Hannah Paxton twice – once as a teenaged witness to a horrible murder in a bar. And now, thirty years later, as a juror in a high profile trial.

When Hannah starts receiving vicious phone calls and then is attacked on a freezing Minnesota night, it seems murder is searching for her again...for the final time.

Jude Brenner is a cop who's been wounded and is facing forced retirement. He's assigned to protect Hannah, an easy job that seems like it's one step away from desk work.

Jude's unaware that Hannah is the target of two stalkers. When the stalkers' agendas intersect, Hannah is caught in the crossfire and Jude is forced to make tough decisions about his future as a cop – and his future with Hannah.

Hannah's past and present collide, putting both her and Jude's lives at risk. It's up to Jude to save Hannah (with a little help from SpongeBob SquarePants). And it's up to Hannah to save Jude – from a lonely past and an uncertain future.

Here's an excerpt

Amazon:

<http://tinyurl.com/kj9y3g6>

Print:

<http://tinyurl.com/o9h4h4v>

Also available at Smashwords, Kobo, B&N, etc.